FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK . . .

I want to give a heads up to those who have a habit of attending daily Mass.

As an aside, I would encourage each of you during these summer months to attend daily Mass whenever possible. Especially, if you are on summer break. You might be unaware, but, daily Mass occurs every day in the main church. The only exception is Monday mornings when it is at Ganado Nursing & Rehabilitation Center. One of my best summer memories is going to daily Mass. Once a week during the summer my mother would take us to Mass in the morning, the donut shop thereafter, then to visit my great-grandmother. It was a beautiful summer tradition.

Having said all that, I want to inform you that the next two weeks there will be a very limited Mass schedule. This week I will be in San Antonio for continuing education at the Oblate School of Theology. It is necessary for my work as a Spiritual Director with the Emmaus Center in Victoria. Consequently, there will be Mass on Monday, Thursday, and Friday only. The following week, I will be with my family on vacation, Monday-Friday. I will celebrate all weekend Masses at Assumption parish.

Hope to see you at Mass.

Father Kirby Hlavaty

There are 3 pages of tickets, worth $75, in each envelope. We ask that you sign your name and how many envelopes you take on a sheet next to the tickets.

ANIMA CHRISTI

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O Good Jesus, hear me.
Within Thy wounds hide me.
Suffer me not to be separated from thee.
From the malignant enemy defend me.
In the hour of my death call me.
And bid me come unto Thee,
That with all Thy saints,
I may praise thee
Forever and ever.
Amen.

Readings for JUNE 25: TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading: Jeremiah 20:10-13

Jeremiah said: "I hear the whisperings of many: 'Terror on every side! Denounce! Let us denounce him!' All those who were my friends are on the watch for any misstep of mine. 'Perhaps he will be trapped; then we can prevail, and take our vengeance on him.' But the LORD is with me, like a mighty champion: my persecutors will stumble, they will not triumph. In their failure they will be put to utter shame, to lasting, unforgettable confusion. O LORD of hosts, you who test the just, who probe mind and heart, let me witness the vengeance you take on them, for to you I have entrusted my cause. Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD, for he has rescued the life of the poor from the power of the wicked!"

2nd Reading: Romans 5:12-15

Brothers and sisters: Through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death, and thus death came to all men, inasmuch as all sinned — for up to the time of the law, sin was in the world, though sin is not accounted when there is no law. But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin after the pattern of the trespass of Adam, who is the type of the one who was to come. But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many.

Gospel: Matthew 10:26-33

Jesus said to the Twelve: "Fear no one. Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known. What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father."
