Thirtieth Sunday of Ordinary Time

TODAY'S READINGS

Exodus 22:20-26. God hears the cry of the oppressed.

Psalms 18. "I love you, Lord, my strength."

1 Thessalonians 1:5-10. God's people are renowned for their conversion and love of God.

Matthew 22:34-40. The greatest law is the law of love.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Because we only love God as much as the neighbor we love the least, whom do I need to look at differently this week if I hope to look more like God?

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK . . .

This week the Church celebrates two important feast days. November 1st is the Solemnity of All Saints and November 2nd is the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, commonly known as All Souls' Day.

All Saints Day is a Holy Day and we are obliged to celebrate the Eucharist. During this Mass we call upon those holy men and women who have gone before us and now sit in the company of God. We ask for their intercession and humbly request they bring our petitions before the face of God. All Saints Day reminds us too of the Church triumphant, which includes not only the canonized saints, but also the countless faithful who have taken their place in heaven. This day should inspire us to live our life in accord with the Gospel so that we too will be saints.

All Souls' Day is another opportunity for us to pray for the departed. On this day we seek God's mercy for our beloved dead so that they make the journey to heaven. It is for this reason we gather in the cemetery, the hallowed ground in which our families are buried, to pray their souls home to God.

Please note Masses for the Holy Day of Obligation on Wednesday, November 1, are at 7:00 a.m., 12:05 p.m., and 6:00 p.m. The parish office will be closed for the Holy Day.

Rosary, Blessing of Graves, and Mass at the Cemetery on Thursday, November 2 will begin at 6:00 p.m.

Throughout the month of November, seek the intercession of the Saints and remember all the faithful departed.

In Christ,

Father Kirby Hlavaty

Readings for NOVEMBER 5: Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Malachi 1:14--2:2, 8-10

A great King am I, says the LORD of hosts, and my name will be feared among the nations. And now, O priests, this commandment is for you: If you do not listen, if you do not lay it to heart, to give glory to my name, says the LORD of hosts, I will send a curse upon you and of your blessing I will make a curse. You have turned aside from the way, and have caused many to falter by your instruction; you have made void the covenant of Levi, says the LORD of hosts. I, therefore, have made you contemptible and base before all the people, since you do not keep my ways, but show partiality in your decisions. Have we not all the one father? Has not the one God created us? Why then do we break faith with one another, violating the covenant of our fathers?

2nd Reading: 1 Thessalonians 2:7-9, 13

Brothers and sisters: We were gentle among you, as a nursing mother cares for her children. With such affection for you, we were determined to share with you not only the gospel of God, but our very selves as well, so dearly beloved had you become to us. You recall, brothers and sisters, our toil and drudgery. Working night and day in order not to burden any of you, we proclaimed to you the gospel of God. And for this reason we too give thanks to God unceasingly, that, in receiving the word of God from hearing us, you received not a human word but, as it truly is, the word of God, which is now at work in you who believe.

Gospel: Matthew 23:1-12

Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples, saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees have taken their seat on the chair of Moses. Therefore, do and observe all things whatsoever they tell you, but do not follow their example. For they preach but they do not practice. They tie up heavy burdens hard to carry and lay them on people's shoulders, but they will not lift a finger to move them. All their works are performed to be seen. They widen their phylacteries and lengthen their tassels. They love places of honor at banquets, seats of honor in synagogues, greetings in marketplaces, and the salutation 'Rabbi.' As for you, do not be called 'Rabbi.' You have but one teacher, and you are all brothers. Call no one on earth your father; you have but one Father in heaven. Do not be called 'Master'; you have but one master, the Christ. The greatest among you must be your servant. Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted."
