

Faith Points from Father Michael . . .

As we see from Luke chapter 10 today, a relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ brings us power that is to be used to expel the Enemy. As our Lord said to the disciples returning from their mission, "Behold, I have given you the power to tread ... upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you."

We do have the power to expel demons from around us by prayerfully invoking the name and precious blood of Jesus and commanding the demons to return to Hell forever. As the disciples said in today's Gospel, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name."

That power given to us in the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Baptism and sealed at Confirmation is the Lord calling us to share in His redemptive mission. That is exciting. We have the power within us, given to us by God, to exercise the authority of His Son, Jesus, over the full force of the Enemy.

But, as exciting as that is, Jesus reminds his disciples and reminds us in Luke 10 today, "Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven." Indeed, it would do us no good to possess that power if we were to wind up, in the end, with the Enemy in Hell forever.

So the biggest source of our rejoicing is that we have a relationship with God in Jesus Christ, and through that, our names are written in the Book of Life. As we use the power Christ gave us to tread upon the full force of the enemy, let us, at all times, praise Christ for his wonderful goodness to us.

God bless you and keep you.

Your brother in Christ,

Father Michael

YOU CAN HELP YOUR MARRIAGE

Stress in Your Marriage? – Retrouvaille is a program for married couples who feel bored, disillusioned, frustrated, or angry in their marriage. Some experience coldness. Others experience conflict in their relationship. Most don't know how to change the situation or even communicate with their spouse about it. This program has helped 10's of 1000's of couples experiencing difficulties in their marriage. For confidential information about or to register for the September program beginning with a weekend in Victoria on September 10-12, 2010, call 979-543-3493 or email: lbconner@sbcglobal.net or visit the web site at www.retrouvaille.org.

SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE

Each summer beginning in July until school starts, the Catholic Daughters ask for donations of school supplies, or money to buy supplies, which will be given to students at Ganado Elementary. There will be a box to hold donations in the foyer of the Church. Monetary gifts may be placed in the collection basket marked, "School Supplies," or mailed to Georgie Kruse, PO Box 18, Ganado, TX 77962.

THE PRO-LIFE CORNER

A nation that rejects God will embrace death. We believe that life is sacred because God created human beings in His own image and likeness. A nation that rejects God will inevitably devalue life and embrace death however it is disguised i.e. abortion and euthanasia. A nation that accepts this practice is a nation without a conscience.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses said to the people: "If only you would heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the LORD, your God, with all your heart and all your soul." For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you. It is not up in the sky, that you should say, 'Who will go up in the sky to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' Nor is it across the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross the sea to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' No, it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out."

Second Reading: Colossians 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

Gospel: Luke 10:25-37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test him and said, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" He said in reply, 'You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.' He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live." But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.' Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."
