FROM THE PASTOR’S DESK . . .

I want to thank those of you who donated an item for our annual parish raffle. It is wonderful to see so many parishioners making an offering to help benefit the Church. I remember what an old pastor of mine used to say, “God is never outdone in generosity.” I am certain he will continue to bless your goodness.

Likewise, then I want to encourage you to pick up and sell your packet(s) of tickets. As you know, this is the only fundraiser that directly benefits the parish. We use raffle profits for the general operation of the church which includes all our major bills like property insurance and unpaid DSA. It was the raffle and bake potato dinner last year that allowed us to pay off our parish debt. Now we need the profits so that we can meet our financial obligations for this year. (Our insurances will be due by year’s end.)

Also, there are some major maintenance issues that need to be addressed soon. I am looking at what it would take to update the Parish hall (new tables and chairs, painting, kitchen update, etc.) as well as trying to find the best solution for the church windows. They still leak when it rains if the wind is blowing from certain directions. I thought the window problem was solved but during hurricane Harvey we did have some minor leakage.

So, a successful raffle will help us in many ways. Please do what you can.

“The object of the Legion of Mary is the glory of God through the holiness of its members . . .”How does it work? Members meet once a week for an hour and a half for prayer, planning and discussion. Then they are assigned a definite work each week in pairs and under the guidance of their parish priest. Work may include visitation of the sick and homebound, religious education, parishioner visitation, prison ministry, etc.

Active membership is open to all Catholics who faithfully practice their Catholic religion. Auxiliary members commit to pray the Legion prayers, including the Rosary, daily for the intentions of the Blessed Mother.

Readings for July 22: SIXTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading: Jeremiah 23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the LORD. Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds. I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring them back to their meadow; there they shall increase and multiply. I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the LORD. Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David; as king he shall reign and govern wisely, he shall do what is just and right in the land. In his days Judah shall be saved, Israel shall dwell in security. This is the name they give him: "The LORD our justice."

2nd Reading: Ephesians 2:13-18

Brothers and sisters: In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting that enmity to death by it. He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

Gospel: Mark 6:30-34

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.
