Eighteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

TODAY'S READINGS

Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15. I will rain down bread from heaven for you.

Psalm 78. "The Lord gave them bread from heaven"

Ephesians 4:17, 20-24. Put on the new self that has been created in God's way.

John 6:24-35. Whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What nourishment have I received in the Eucharist today? How will that sustain me as I "put on" my new self this week?

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK . . .

During this month of August, our Sunday Gospel readings will be from the sixth chapter of St. John's Gospel. It is a detour from Mark's Gospel that we have been reading during this Ordinary Time.

Known as the Discourse on the Bread of Life, this section of John's Gospel gives us a great opportunity to reflect on the gift of the Eucharist. As you know, our Catholic faith teaches that the Eucharist is the real presence of God. The consecrated host is the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Christ Himself. For us, communion is neither sign nor symbol but God. Jesus gave us His very self and it is central not only to our worship but also our very lives.

I highly recommend that you spend this month of August reflecting on this sacred mystery.

Father Kirby Hlavaty

Readings for August 12: NINETEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading: 1 Kings 19:4-8

Elijah went a day's journey into the desert, until he came to a broom tree and sat beneath it. He prayed for death saying: "This is enough, O LORD! Take my life, for I am no better than my fathers." He lay down and fell asleep under the broom tree, but then an angel touched him and ordered him to get up and eat. Elijah looked and there at his head was a hearth cake and a jug of water. After he ate and drank, he lay down again, but the angel of the LORD came back a second time, touched him, and ordered, "Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!" He got up, ate, and drank; then strengthened by that food, he walked forty days and forty nights to the mountain of God, Horeb.

2nd Reading: Ephesians 4:30—5:2

Brothers and sisters: Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were sealed for the day of redemption. All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice. And be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ. So be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us as a sacrificial offering to God for a fragrant aroma.

Gospel: John 6:41-51

The Jews murmured about Jesus because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven," and they said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can he say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Stop murmuring among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him on the last day. It is written in the prophets: They shall all be taught by God. Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."
