TODAY'S READINGS

Wisdom 7:7-11. I deemed riches nothing in comparison to wisdom.

Psalm 90. "Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!"

Hebrews 4:12-13. The word of God discerns reflections and thoughts of the heart.

Mark 10:17-30. Sell what you have, and follow me.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

How does my attachment to my possessions keep me from entering the kingdom of God? How might God assist me in making it possible?

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK . . .

Just a few of things . . .

- ❖ A reminder that Confessions are Saturdays from 4:00-4:45 p.m. & Sundays from 8:15-8:45 a.m. These times are scheduled for your convenience before our weekend Masses. However, confessions need to end 15 minutes prior to the start of Mass. This gives me time to prepare for the Liturgy. Please be sensitive and do not wait until the last second. Like with all sacraments, going to reconciliation should not be a last minute thought, but should be prepared for before entering the Confessional.
- ❖ I'm sad to report that someone(s) broke into our votive candle stands. This saddens me because it indicates the danger we risk in leaving our church unlocked. At this point, we will not change our practice, however, if there are any more instances we will be forced to start locking the church in the evenings.
- ❖ Progress continues to be made on the hall restoration. I remind you that our Harvest collection is going into the Maintenance fund. Please be as generous as possible.

In Christ,

Father Kirby Hlavaty

Pro-life bumper stickers are available on the cabinets in Church. Please pick one up only if you plan to use it. We encourage you to research your candidate before voting. The stickers were graciously donated by an anonymous donor. Please pray for the unborn and their parents.

DSA UPDATE

The parish's 2018 assessment is $33,245.00. As of October 9th the paid in amount is $10,624.00. The report indicates only 53 families have made a contribution. If ALL our parish families would make even a $84 donation we could pay off this assessment. Remember, the outstanding balance as of December 31, 2018 will have to be taken from our savings. We need your help to meet our goal!

CCD CLASSES

Wednesdays, October 17 & 24

- ❖ Grades 1-5 4:00-5:15 p.m.
- ❖ Grades 6-12 7:00-8:15 p.m.

RESOLUTION

Challenge yourself this week to empty your life of worldliness and make room for Jesus. Give something away, perhaps not something buried in your closet that you don't use, but something that you use frequently, but don't really need. Maybe it's a piece of clothing or your coffee money for the week. Also, turn off the screens in your house one night. Take time to pray as a family or on your own with the extra time you gain without the entertainment.

Readings for OCTOBER 21: Twenty-ninth Sunday of Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11

The LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity. If he gives his life as an offering for sin, he shall see his descendants in a long life, and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him. Because of his affliction he shall see the light in fullness of days; through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear.

2nd Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16

Brothers and sisters: Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin. So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." He replied, "What do you wish me to do for you?" They answered him, "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" They said to him, "We can." Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared." When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John. Jesus summoned them and said to them, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

"Take delight in the Lord; and he will give you the desires of your heart." – Psalm 37:4
